Cathy is a fashion designer and she loves her job. She's a night person, so she gets up at noon. She does yoga for an hour and takes a shower. Then, she leaves home and drives to her office. She usually has a look at the magazines, the fashion sites on the net and reads her e-mails. She spends most of her time on designing, and has lots of meetings at the office with customers. She often visits fashion shows, and does window-shopping, too. She works with Jeremy. He's her photographer and he's good at his job. She goes to his studio every day and chooses the best photos of her designs. She gets home quite late. She likes cooking her own dinner. It helps her relax. She watches DVDs before sleeping and she goes to bed after midnight. She travels abroad a lot, so she can learn about designs all over the world. She buys dolls from different countries for her doll collection. Jeremy is a photographer and he works for Cathy. He's a morning person. He gets up very early, and goes running for an
